Eight Successful Years

WITH this issue, Linn's Weekly Stamp News completes its eighth full year of successful publication, eight complete volumes, a total of four hundred and eighteen issues. This present volume totals over 1000 pages.

In this period, the publishers are proud of the fact that the paper has always appeared on time. There have been but few instances in these past eight years when it has been necessary to delay the total mailing which should be completed by Friday afternoon of each week and carry over a small part of the mailing until Saturday morning. Such instances have been caused by reasons beyond our control so that we feel quite proud of our record thus far.

The first issue of this paper was dated Monday, November 5, 1928. After some years, the date for publication was changed to Saturday, altho the mailing date was still continued as Thursday afternoon, Friday noon and Friday afternoon. The paper being delivered to the postoffice in three separate deliveries.

This fact should be borne in mind by all readers and especially those who have reason to complain of delay in receipt of their papers from week to weekly. We strongly urge in all such cases that complaint be made to your local postmaster and ask him to trace back and learn what is the cause of the delay. You can tell him when the papers are mailed and thus help in getting better delivery.

When first issued, Linn's Weekly Stamp News was priced at 25 cents per year. At the time when this publication was first issued in 1928, there were then two weekly stamp papers in the United States.

Mekeel's, the older of the two had a paid circulation at that time of less than 10,000 copies weekly. Gossip, the other weekly had, to the best of our knowledge, less than 3000 circulation weekly.

Within four years time, Linn's Weekly Stamp News grew to a greater weekly circulation than any stamp paper had ever before attained in this country or in any foreign country. In the fall of 1933, this paper had attained a weekly circulation of over 19,000 copies, still the largest circulation that had ever been attained by any stamp publication.

Arriving at this point it was found that if we were to continue to let the circulation grow we would soon be swamped for lack of facilities to produce and handle the publication promptly each week. For that reason the price for the paper was advanced to 50 cents per year and we at the same time adopted a policy of sitting still and making no further effort to add to our subscription list by the active solicitation of new subscriptions which any publication which hopes to grow, must do.

As a result of this plan, the circulation has dropped off in the past two and one-half years to less than 14,000 copies weekly. Plans are now perfected whereby we are again to actively solicit subscriptions with the intention of again putting Linn's Weekly Stamp News in the forefront of all stamp publications in point of actual weekly circulation.

On September 17, 1932, a new publication entered the field. STAMPS, published by H. L. Lindquist of New York. This publication became almost an instantaneous success as it was destined to become principally because of its strategic location in New York City from which point the principal dealers of the country operate and it is but natural that any publication, properly managed and issued from that point, by any man who carried on proper and friendly relations with the dealers and collectors of that area, was destined to succeed and become recognized as one of the leading publications of the world.

However, the field for stamp publications is so large, and at the same time so few collectors take any paper for some reason or other that there is certainly room for any publication to gain a greater circulation than any have yet gained if they can but strike the popular chord and it is our belief that this certain publication must be one that has an appeal to the common garden variety of collector rather than to the specialist.

During these later years there have been numerous other publications, both weekly and monthly that have made a bid for support. Some with claims of enormous circulation, others modestly striving to gain recognition solely on their merits.

It is a strange situation—Post-office Officials at Washington are responsible for the statement that there are ten million stamp collectors, yet no publication has ever succeeded in getting one-half of one per cent of that number on their subscription list.

Estimates by dealers, collectors and stamp societies place the number of collectors at a mere fraction of the number estimated by the Postoffice Department, yet that number is sufficient that a stamp publication ought to be able to attain a circulation of 50,000 copies per week.

Henceforth it shall be the aim and object of Linn's Weekly Stamp News to build a circulation that will reach a greater number of stamp collectors than any other publication. We feel confident that it can be done. We feel confident that the great mass of stamp collectors are men who collect stamps merely as a hobby or pastime without great regard to investment value. These people are the type of collector who is little worried by the many intricacies of plate flaws, plate varieties and minute details that are the sole pursuit of that group who make stamp collecting a business or an every day study.

The bulk of the collectors are interested chiefly in the news of daily interest and are satisfied with a publication that gives them that news in brief form together with attractive advertising offers in order that they may scan the paper in an evening or at odd hours and not feel obliged to make a perpetual weekly study of the publication in order to feel informed on current subjects and to wade through countless pages of matter of interest only to a specialist in a given field.

As often as we reiterate this belief we are encouraged in it by letters from collectors who urge us to follow such a plan. We have faith in such a plan and our success in the past leads us to believe that our faith has not been misplaced.

Now 25c PER YEAR

Because we are now ready to go ahead with our plans for the development of this publication, the subscription price is reduced to 25 cents per year in the United States. In making this reduction to become effective with our first issue for November, 1936, we began on August 31, of this year and have entered all subscriptions received since that date for double the number of years for which they were ordered and paid for, thus making the new 25c price actually apply for all subscriptions received during the months of September and October.

If you remitted 50c for a year's subscription, your subscription was entered for two years. If you remitted a dollar for two years, your subscription was entered for four years.

Other than this concession, there will be no allowance for any other subscriptions on our books.

At this time it might be well to again tell all readers just how they can tell when their subscription expires.

In the date line of the paper each week, you will note at the right hand side of this line the words "Whole No." and a number following these words. This issue bears the "Whole No. 418". Look at the wrapper of your paper with your name and address on it and note the number that follows your name. When this number reaches the "Whole No." as printed in the paper each week, your subscription has expired. If you will watch this number and send your renewal a week or two before the two numbers agree you will be assured of not missing a copy.

Already, announcement of the change in subscription price has been sent to more than one thousand stamp dealers and to over 600 different stamp club secretaries throughout the country. In response to these announcements we are able to print this issue with a heavy volume of advertising. This issue will consist of 16,000 copies and in that number will be several hundred new subscriptions added to our list in the past two weeks in response to the circulars mentioned above.

It has long been the practice of publications of all sorts to offer premiums for new subscribers. This practice merely means that the publisher is pricing the paper at a certain figure and giving you a premium of some sort. These premiums cost money and naturally you are buying the premium and getting the paper at a slight cost below the regular figure.

We are adopting a policy of no premiums, yet giving you the paper at a cost as low as it is possible to do.

We know from our experience when our publication was at the 25c rate in past years that collectors will appreciate this. We know that they will tell their friends about the paper that can be had for 25c per year and we know that we will receive hundreds of new subscriptions solely on the recommendations of our readers because of this new low price.

We urge all readers to tell their friends of this fact. Tell them that they need send only 25c and receive this paper every week for one year. As in the past, we will gladly send a quantity of subscription forms that you friendly readers may give or mail to friends in an effort to help them get a paper that they can afford to buy as well as help us add their names to our list. In asking for such subscription blanks please state plainly how many you can use.

Perhaps it might be desirable here to nail another old bit of hokey in its coffin for word came to us in the past and will doubtless come to us in the future, to the effect that any publication with a 25c subscription rate goes to nobody but kids.

We will gladly match up our subscription list or our mail for a single month with subscription payments, with any other publication in the United States. We know from scanning the letterheads and stationery that comes to our office that we reach Bankers, Lawyers, Doctors, Business men of all classes just as the other publications do, but on the other hand, we do know that we will have thousands of names on our list, due to the low cost, that positively are not on the subscription list of other stamp publications. This fact gives a field for business and much of it very de-

CHANGE OF DRESS

Next week, the first number in our ninth volume, the beginning of our ninth successful year of publication will see some changes in the general dress and appearance of this publication.

Foremost of these changes has already been announced in the reduction of the subscription price. The next change of importance will be in the type face which is to be used throughout the magazine.

A slightly smaller face of type, thus permitting more reading matter will make its appearance. Changes in the type style for the various department headings as well as the smaller headings throughout the paper will go into effect with the next issue.

Changes in policy are unnecessary for Linn's Weekly has been a success in the past and we are confident of the future.

NAVAL CANCELS AND CACHETS

By Marshall R. Hall, ANCS 16
1767 Bedford Road, Columbus, O.

Conducted under auspices of American Naval Cancellation Society and news is welcome from all sources. Code symbols for ANCS members' guidance. UNLESS OTHERWISE SPECIFIED ALL EVENTS REQUIRE 1 CENT A COVER FORWARDING POSTAGE. Address all news and inquiries to Mr. Hall and NOT to this magazine.

Six different cachets are being created for commemoration of at least that many events in the early future, all of them sponsored by O. A. Farrabee, Box 20, Submarine Base, New London, Conn., and covers should be sent to him at once.

(Ahnotv)

C. J. Cerrinack, mail orderly on the submarine, USS Argonaut, Pearl Harbor, T. H., writes that he is low on ANCS covers and advises members to get some to him for various events in Hawaiian waters. All who have enjoyed the fine cancels produced by Mr. Cerrinack will not be slow in sending along more covers.

(Aet)

Cachet sponsors sent me during the last week, eleven items which had already appeared elsewhere or were scheduled to appear before this column could reach print. All went into the waste basket. Let me repeat, that unless it can appear here at least simultaneously with publication in other stampic magazines, save your postage. I will not use it.

Don't forget the nice covers that come back from Russell C. Carey, mail clerk on the USS Fairfax, care postmaster, Morgan Annex, New York, N. Y. Send him 10 covers, ask him to mail them back one at a time, and increase the brilliance and beauty of your collection. (Acent)

Answering inquiries, the quarterly ANCS Log is being prepared, also the latest roster. It will be in the mail shortly.

Collectors who have been favored with the fine service of the mail clerk on the USS Melville, will note that he has been transferred to the USS Richmond, and while no longer mail clerk, he is still willing to help you with covers. He is H. L. Geohegan and the Richmond is at Pearl Harbor, T. H. (Et)

Word from C. E. Pierson of the USS Perkins, Puget Sound Navy Yard, Bremerton, Wash., is to the effect that he will be glad to get odd cancels up there for members, and is planning on several cachets. (Aet)

Time now to get covers off for Christmas cancels in the Asiatic Fleet, as it requires 30 to 45 days for these to reach the ships in question, and about an equal time for them to return. In view of the generally growing interest in these far off ships, it will be well for all naval hobbyists to cover as many of the ships as possible this year for the big holiday cancel. Address all ships care postmaster, San Francisco, Calif., and not via Seattle, as so many other naval columns are advising. Some of the ships are:

Augusta, Canopus, Luzon, Guam, Mindanao, Helena, Asheville, Sacramento, Tutuila, Monocacy, Stewart and Pope. All will give you fine service.

USS Balch first day in commission covers are back, smeared with the Boston city cancel, another case of some officious busy-body in the post office ruining nice covers. If this keeps up, some postal servants are going to do more harm to our hobby than anything else that has occurred. Send your ruined covers to the first assistant postmaster general, Washington, D. C., and register a strong protest.

Columbus Stamp Show

The Columbus Philatelic Club is celebrating National Stamp Week by a special exhibition which will be on view at the beautiful Art Museum in Columbus, Ohio, for the entire month of November.

The Club wants to extend a special invitation to stamp collectors from everywhere, to visit this exhibit during the month.

In setting up the exhibit an effort has been made to display and show stamps that would attract and interest the public rather than to make a display for stamp collectors, yet at the same time, the thought has been borne in mind that we want to show the public how and what stamp collectors do collect and attempt to explain at the same time, why we collect such stamps.

There are a total of 80 frames, each frame holding six pages. In planning the exhibit, each section or frame has been especially planned in a manner that makes it an individual display. Where but a single frame is used for a country or group, one page in this frame has been used for a brief description of the contents of the frame with the thought to give the public or the non-collector some insight into the reasons for the collector's interest in the particular stamps shown.

It was the thought of the committee which arranged the exhibit that all exhibits should be mounted on album pages, that is, mounted just as though they were pages taken from a collector's album. Any attempt to embellish large sheets or complete frames with designs and special arrangements has been banned as we wanted the public to see how we collect stamps and how we keep them and not lead the public to believe that stamps were collected to decorate walls or bed room suites.

The Exhibition is to open at noon on November 1, and will be open daily throughout the entire month.

The Columbus Art Museum is located on East Broad Street, corner of Sixth, and is open daily and Sundays. The Exhibit is in the beautiful Packard Room. A catalogue of the Exhibit has been printed and will be available to all visitors who view the exhibition so that they may have some help in understanding and knowing about the stamps shown.

Local collectors as well as collectors throughout Ohio who can visit Columbus during November are especially invited to see this exhibition and to invite their friends. It is free and at the same time the other exhibitions on permanent display at the Columbus Museum of Fine Arts are well worth a trip to Columbus.

The Farleys are available in all positions including center lines, arrows, plates. A very limited number of top plate blocks of 16 imperf. are available at $11.00 per block. Complete set of 20 sheets only $550.00.

Little, But Mighty

Many more words than the above could not more clearly describe the value of a small 16 page pamphlet entitled "Pointers on Condition and Conditioning of Stamps for the Stamp Album" by Fred Scherer, 45 Bradford Place, Newark, N. J.

This small pamphlet gives in a few pages and in clearly understandable language more sound information about stamps and how to care for them than we have found in many hundred page books.

Mr. Scherer is evidently a collector who loves his stamps and as such a collector has studied them in order that he may understand them and know how to care for and preserve them to the best advantage.

Too many collectors fail to realize that stamps are printed in different ways on different kinds of paper and from different qualities of ink and that in treating such stamps to clean them or to remove spots or gum requires different treatment for each kind. Mr. Scherer explains this and many other points that should and will interest every man who wishes to take the best care of his choice stamps.

Opens London Office

Herman Herst, Jr., 200 West 70th Street, New York, announces the opening of a London branch to specialize in stamps of Great Britain and her colonies. Banking connections will be at Barclay's Bank, Chancery Lane branch, 311-313, High Holborn, London, WC 1. For information, write Herman Herst, Jr., 20 Westerdale Road, London, S E 10, England. Mr. Herst himself will remain in New York, specializing in United States issues. Telegraphic communication will be maintained with the cable address "HER-STAMP NEWYORK."

Larry Lovejoy Leaves Akron

It will be with much regret that the many friends of Lawrence (Larry) Lovejoy, learn of the fact that he is no longer a resident of Akron, Ohio. Larry has long been one of the staunch "old guard" of Akron and a man beloved of all who knew him. A real collector, a true friend.

A letter from Mrs. Larry states that he has removed to Springfield, Mass., where he is to be Personnel Director of the Fisk Company. Mrs. Lovejoy and her daughter Dorothy plan to join him as soon as they can arrange to leave Akron.

We congratulate Springfield on the acquisition of one of Ohio's finest stamp collectors and we are certain that Springfield will learn to love Larry (and Mrs. Larry) just as much as have Ohio collectors who have had the pleasure of knowing them.

Stock Exchange for Stamps

Now we have a real Stock Exchange for U. S. Stamps in sheets as well as for popular issues such as the British Jubilees per 10 sets.

A sheet with "Bid" and "Ask" prices is issued each Friday and mailed to leading buyers and sellers. In effect it is a regular "Bull" and "Bear" market sheet on which are shown prices at which someone offers a certain sheet and in an opposite column a price at which someone else offers to buy such a sheet, the brokerage fee is but 3% and all business is handled on a C. O. D. basis. Certainly if there is sufficient market in this manner the idea ought to go over good. Copies of the sheets may be had from Mint Sheet Brokerage Co., 3rd Floor Crown Bldg., Cleveland, Ohio.

Texas Centennial Flight

In our issue of October 10, page 950, there was printed an article with information of interest to all who had ordered covers on the Mason-Pangborn Flight which was for a time sponsored by the Texas Centennial.

At that time we gave the name and address of Mr. F. Thayer Stoddard, 304 E. Fifth Street, Austin, Texas, who asked all who had remitted for covers on the flight to advise him of their remittance and give him full details. Mr. Stoddard plans to take the matter up with the Centennial Commission and if necessary, with the Postoffice Department to learn if there has been fraud through the mails. The object being to get refund or satisfaction for those who contributed.

Read the previous article and write Mr. Stoddard in detail. If you wish a reply from him, send him an addressed stamped envelope.

A Few Minutes with the Editor

OUR THANKS TO YOU

Our thanks are especially offered at this time to the host of friends who have continued year after year to be subscribers for and readers of Linn's Weekly Stamp News for without readers there could be no publication. Thanks to those dealers who have tested space in our paper and have found that it brings them results that justifies their continued patronage. Thanks to those new advertisers who are testing space in this issue and whom we hope will find that regular use of space will be worth their while.

In this issue we are printing a more or less general review of this publication since its establishment eight years ago.

Considering the difficulties under which we have labored, coupled with business conditions of the past years, we are highly pleased with the progress that we have made, yet we are fully capable of greater things in the various fields in which we are working, once we are properly equipped to carry out the plans we have outlined.

It is for this reason that LINPRINT Inc., has found it necessary to offer for sale, stock in the Corporation. All business concerns need capital with which to operate as well as to equip their plants for operation. Our growth has been rapid, our products have met with approval, because of their high quality.

However, we have been unable to progress as rapidly as we might have done solely because of lack of capital to produce and stock the merchandise which we can make. To put new items on the market requires capital investment and to produce at competitive prices requires modern equipment and machinery.

It is for these purposes that additional capital is needed and it is for this reason that $15,000 in Preferred and Common stock has been offered to our friends and readers.

Several thousand dollars worth of this stock has already been sold, but there still remains several thousand dollars more in stock to sell.

Sales throughout the past year have been in small blocks and it takes many such sales to reach a single thousand dollars. However, the results have not been discouraging and we have every reason to believe that sales in the coming year will be satisfactory. We have no wish to close out this stock quickly, for the development of our business is progressing satisfactorily. We hope that by next summer at the latest that we can move into larger quarters—by that time, our circulation will have grown considerably and we will be on the upward move and be able to add equipment and machinery to continue that upward swing and reach the goal for which we are striving.

Every week brings inquiries for our prospectus. We still have copies of the original prospectus and will gladly send same to any reader who is interested in a share or more of LINPRINT stock.

Stock, either Common or Preferred, is offered at $10.00 per share. Stockholders receive this publication free, they are also entitled to a 20% discount on all goods manufactured by LINPRINT and receive other benefits. Let us send you a prospectus.

One page shows samples of different kinds of paper used in making stamps, other pages describe paper, and other points of general interest are covered. You will find their offers in this issue.

IT IS UNNECESSARY TO CALL YOUR attention to the advertisement of the Buckey Stamp Company on the front page of this issue for no one can overlook this space which is one of the finest advertising spots in any stamp paper. However, we do want to say that if you are ever in Dayton, you will enjoy meeting the Buckeys' and you will be pleased with the very attractive stamp sales room which they will show you.

Brundige of Albany

J. Merritt Brundige of Albany, N. Y., is another of the dealers who was a strong supporter of Linn's Weekly back in the days when its circulation was the largest in the world and Mr. Brundige assures us that he believes that our return to a 25c per year subscription rate will again put Linn's Weekly in the lead of all papers in circulation. He has such faith in us that he has again taken contract for large space and we have an advance order for the back page for three successive weeks. His offers are always interesting.

Pioneer Philatelic Phalanx

The Editor of Linn's Weekly Stamp News feels quite honored by being invited to accept an Honorary Life Membership in the newly formed Pioneer Philatelic Phalanx. This organization is made up solely of the oldest living persons of the Nineteenth Century, who started, helped to commence or otherwise aided in making "Philately" what it is today—instead of boy's play,—a real science, hobby and educational pastime.

To be a member of this organization one must be over fifty years of age, and must have collected stamps in the nineteenth century (prior to 1900).

The organization has no dues, no fees, no sales circuits and such and does not in any way conflict with any present National Philatelic Organization.

From time to time we hope to have matter of interest from this old guard. L. C. Wagner, Suite 405, 685 Wither St., Los Angeles, Calif., is Honorary Secretary.

Big List of Single Stamps

Buying from a want list is a very uncertain way of obtaining what you want, but if you can have a list of stamps to pick from you know just what you are ordering and what it will cost you.

The Rialto Stamp Company of New York have long made a specialty of pricing countries by single stamps with a price on each stamp when in stock. They have just issued a large list in which 25 countries are priced in this manner and their success with this plan of selling has kept them plenty busy most of the time.

In the past they were rather large users of space in Linn's Weekly. Now that this publication is again adding many new names to its subscription list the Rialto Stamp Company are again using large space for their offers. Note the big offering of Sweden in this issue, see last week's paper for offers on Greece and watch future issues for further offers.

Airmail Cover News

C. A. Hunter, Syracuse, Nebraska

Information, as well as inquiries for this department should be addressed as above.

A couple of dedications occurred in the past week and one of the dedications came on short notice as to actual date but was stated previously that it might occur at any time. Viv-Ro airport at Rodessa, La., dedicated on October 10 with a green printed cachet by John H. Allen and Taylor Brothers Flying Service. This was the event we had given notice that Allen would hold covers for and those who sent in received this one. . . . Tupelo, Miss., dedicated on October 14 with a printed cachet in black. This was slated for the 4th. . . . A short notice event was the dedication of Aberdeen, Miss., on Oct. 13. The 3-line magenta cachet of the C. of C. was applied. Thanks to Geo. F. Crocker for a cover. . . . Syracuse, N. Y., dedicated on Sept. 19-20 and covers reported as follows: 20 with 5-line typed inscription by C. of C. with signature, 10 with P. M. stamp and signature, and 5 with field managers signature—all postmarked the 20th. Any others? . . . Astoria, Oregon, Sept. 7 reports 1200 covers mailed. . . . San Antonio, Tex., P. M. reports that Stinson field dedicated on the 27th of September. Reported also for the 26th in news items. Approximately 1000 covers mailed both days, some with P. M.'s signature, others without marking. . . . Covers sent for Montpelier, Vermont, dedication came back postmarked October 4, 1936, 8 p. m., at air mail field, Boston. Are these dedication covers? . . . Columbia, Miss., has not dedicated, no date set but C. of C. will mail covers when event occurs. . . Niagara Falls, N. Y. dedicated several years ago, airport being reconditioned and if ceremonies are held for rededication, C. of C. will mail covers. . . Meridian, Miss., dedicated sometime ago, is being modernized and will probably be rededicated. C. of C. will mail covers. . . Natchez, Miss., dedicated some time ago and no rededication plans. . . Ithaca, N. Y., dedicated in 1934, no rededication says C. of C. . . Joplin, Mo., reported to dedicate on October 9 but no covers in yet. Will be embraced for airmail on October 26 and may be a dedication then.

Official notice came through for Santa Barbara, Calif., to be added to AM 11 on November 1. If you aren't on the P. O. D. mailing list for first flight notices, you should be.

News items state that the Department of Commerce is going to urge a subsidy be passed for Trans-Atlantic service, the German flights being considered experimental.

SWITZERLAND—New series. In our notes of October 17th, we stated that a new set to replace the pictorials would appear soon, but Mr. Augustin now informs us that also three new stamps have appeared, they do not replace the pictorial and also he calls our attention to the fact that the new stamps carry a surtax which makes them "semi-postals." The three stamps are all of the same design, having for the central design a Swiss mountain farmer standing atop a mountain. The design seems to have been taken from a painting by the Swiss painter Ferd. Hodler (who Mr. Augustin thinks died some 20 years ago), whose paintings are used on many Swiss Bank notes of 50fr. and larger. The numeral of postal value is in the upper left corner and in the upper right in three lines in small type is "1936 Pro-Patria (for the fatherland) 5." Unwmkd.
perf. 11½:

10c. plus 5c. purple

ELECTRIC EYE

Stamps coming from the plates made with the electric eye cannot be told readily from their brothers unless the selvage along the edge of the sheet is still attached. I came across a block of 15 from West New York, N. J., in the double line U-15 type that had the large red dashes on it. If the collector wants to show the fact that the stamps he has are from these plates he must leave the selvage attached. Of course, this doesn't look so good but then looks are not the premier motive in such a collection. Wouldn't a collection of these be a real highly specialized one? Let's hear about the ones you have or have seen? They all are 2c stamps you know.

PLATING

From the October BEE is taken the following article by Joe Harmon of Seattle, Wash., on the plating of San Francisco type 8.

"1. California occupies only 5 positions under San Francisco.

- (1) C of California is directly under the F of Francisco on all stamps ending in numbers one and six, as one, six, eleven, sixteen, etc.
- (2) C is between the n of San & F of Francisco on all stamps ending in two & seven.
- (3) C is under the n of San on all stamps ending in three & eight.
- (4) C is between the a & n of San on all stamps ending in four & nine.

SORRY!

"Gentlemen: You have been so efficient in helping me find the Chinese stamps I wanted, I wonder if you can fill an order of slightly different nature. I am forty-five, considered good looking and have $12,000 on interest. Now if you can find me a good husband—"

Whoa! This is a stamp business not a matrimonial club. We thank the lady for her faith in us to dig out elusive items and we will continue to supply good stamps at low prices for her collection but we respectfully decline the husband order.

May we send you foreign stamps on approval? We are satisfied you will be satisfied with condition and prices. References appreciated.

PONY EXPRESS STAMP COMPANY
482 South Fourteenth St. Joseph, Missouri

(5) C is under the a of San on all stamps ending in five & zero.

2. While I was plating I found the position of the stamps on which the upper line is missing. They are stamps sixteen to twenty inclusive. The break starts on stamp fifteen, altho I have a copy showing the start on stamp fourteen. It may be that the continued use of the plate may have caused it to break back.

I have a pair showing the one stamp in position 16 without a line & No. 15 showing just a part."

I know a lot of collectors have numerous duplicates in this type and this should provide any one so situated the outline for a mild and entertaining form of specialization. From the above, one could gather that in the forming of the plate only five subjects were originally set up by the printer and was duplicated two across and ten deep.

Sell Your Surplus U. S.

When a collector wishes to sell his surplus stamps he often wonders where to send them and what he will be offered for them. This week, we print a full two page advertisement for Held Brothers of Brooklyn, N. Y. These pages will show you at a glance just what dealers will pay for the more popular of the lower priced U. S. stamps, used, and in quantity. Held Brothers have been constant advertisers in this and other publications for several years past and we have yet to have a complaint about their treatment of any of our readers. Their knowledge of the value of material such as they offer to buy is second to none and they have what we believe is one of the largest stocks of cheaper grade U. S. in wholesale quantity in the United States. They also have many items of choicer quality and are in the market for all U. S. stamps in quantity.

Jumbo Approval Book

LINPRINT INC. COLUMBUS, OHIO

Karl Lewis Convalescing

Classified advertising patrons are advised that any delay in the filling of their orders by Mr. Lewis has been due to his having been knocked down and seriously injured by a motorcycle. He is now on the way to recovery, tho as he states, old bones are hard to heal. We wish him speedy recovery.

And now we have the stamp clearing house. A concern out west lists U. S. and foreign in mint condition just as the stock exchanges do. If one has sheets of Farley's, this concern is notified and it puts a price the seller will sell at and if there is a bid, that is put down. Daily prices are given and if the price is acceptable to both parties, the seller sends to the clearing house via Express collect or through a bank and if the condition of the stamps is good, the agent pays the money for the stamps and is later reimbursed by the buyer. The clearing house receives a small commission for this service.

And still the world moves on. In the New York Times of October 18th, in the illustrated magazine section, a picture is shown of the British Mobile Postoffice System. Depicted there one sees an automobile with a very large trailer that has all the necessary equipment for receiving and sending letters, as well as a telephone booth for long distance service. This Mobile Postoffice was dedicated at the general offices in London and will be used in rural districts during race meetings and agricultural shows. This is something that the U. S. Postoffice could pattern after.

REID D. MACAFEE, APS 12,215
115 Randolph St. South Weymouth, Mass.

Acting Postmaster-General Howes and the Postmaster of New York, Albert Goldman, assisted at the laying of the corner stone of the new Madison Square Postoffice, in twenty-third Street, between Lexington and Third Avenues, New York. The old postoffice was established in 1897 in what was the Metropolitan Life Building and sales were $400,000 the first year. In 1936 the receipts of this postoffice will exceed the take in of the Post Office at Cleveland, Ohio, and all its branches. The Post Office is in a section that houses the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, The New York Life Insurance Co., and various other companies that send enormous amounts of mail out each business day. In the corner stone of the new Post Office one of each of the denominations of the U. S. postage stamps now in use was placed, and it would be interesting to know the value of those stamps say 60 years from now.

Do you know that of Scott's No. 504, the Ottawa Conference airmail of Canada there were only about 500,000 printed. Imagine the price of a U. S. stamp of that figure. Moral, get this stamp while the getting is good, either mint or used.

The latest information of the reigning sensation of the moment the Tipex sheets as shown in the New York Sun is 2,821,770 SHEETS. The Susan B. Anthony stamp is shown at 125,000,000. This list also gives the interesting information that the $4 Columbian stamp of the U. S. issue of 1893 there were only 26,350 copies printed, making this the outstanding stamp of all the issues, beating the U. S. Zeppelins and others.

I MUST RAISE CASH!

A FEW months ago I invested over $1000.00 in current U. S.—a lot of Parks stamps and a fortunate purchase of N. R. A. sheets. I am going to buy a building to house the plant of Linprint and Linn's Weekly Stamp News. I must raise as much cash as possible at once, therefore I offer my stamp investment for cash. The Parks stamps are all Selected Agency Stock. The sheets of 50 have had the straight edges removed, leaving sheets of 36 stamps with plate numbers, all choice pieces. As long as my stock of over $600.00 face lasts, you can have any quantity at 20% over face. Postage and registration extra.

I Have 1c, 3c, 4c, 5c, 7, 9c, 10c Only

N. R. A. SHEETS OF 100

Single copies now list 10c, that means 50c list for blocks of four. Choice sheets of 100 only $4.50. Ten or more sheets at $4.25. Postage and registration extra.

DIRECTORY OF STAMP CLUBS IN THE UNITED STATES

With the thought of again rendering a service to Collectors, LINPRINT INC., have prepared a pocket-size directory of some 175 Stamp Clubs throughout the United States. Full information as to the Secretary's name, address, phone number, dates and place of meetings of the Clubs and in many cases the name of a member who will be pleased to welcome you to the City is given in this directory.

If you are planning a vacation trip, if you are regularly on the road, or if you take short week-end jaunts over the country, you will want one of these directories to carry with you at all times. The price is nominal and we have no doubt that the collectors will agree that it is well worth the price.
